

WISCONSIN FAVOR OF GOING AHEAD

SUGGESTION THAT AMERICANS AND FRENCH CONFERENCE BEFORE OTHERS ARRIVE VETOED. ORGANIZATION IS SLOW

British Plenipotentiaries Expected in Paris on Saturday; Others Next Week.

Paris, Jan. 10.—After nearly a month of waiting and preparation, conversations which will lay the foundation of the actual peace congress are about to start.

Suggestions have been made that the French and American delegates go ahead while awaiting the arrival of the British plenipotentiaries who are expected on Saturday. President Wilson, however, vetoed the plan.

As many of the principal questions to be threshed out in preliminary conferences concern most intimately the United States, Great Britain and France there is some hope of fair headway being made while awaiting the official announcement of the full Italian delegation and the arrival of the Japanese representatives. The Belgians will arrive next week.

Conferences to Develop Progress. The first few conferences between the Americans, French and British probably will develop just how much progress may be expected before the conference opens next month.

It is settled that when he reaches America, one of his first acts will be to address congress and give a report on which has been developed among the Americans here are agreed that the most Mr. Wilson can hope to report will probably be a general understanding of the principles which must be left to be applied by the peace congress.

Each of the bodies of peace commissioners will necessarily go through an organization process. This work has taken the Americans a month and even now they are only partly ready.

The French, of course, have their organization. The Belgians have a highly developed machine ready to function. Even the elevator conductors and porters are men who have been tested in the service of the British government.

Preliminaries Delay Group Plan. These essential preliminaries will not necessarily delay the informal conversations but they will delay the working of a group of the principal negotiators expect to thresh out points with interested neutrals, non-belligerents or minor nations engaged in the peace conference.

President Wilson's feeling on coming to Europe as early as possible has made the preparations to get down to talking peace. It is not an overstatement of the case to say that Mr. Wilson and the peace commissioners have been disappointed in meeting with delays.

The American delegates are understood to feel strongly that the plans are made to be resumed in warring countries, the demobilization of their armies may bring unwelcome problems.

Not Ready to Lift Curtain. Up to the present, all the progress that has been made has been in President Wilson's conferences with French, British and Italian statesmen. The president, for the time being, is not ready to disclose what went on, although he intends that the proceedings shall go on in the way of open diplomacy when he feels it is safe to lift the curtain.

The most that can be said of the conferences so far held by Mr. Wilson is that they have approached only preliminary stages. The conversations to begin will probably take on the course of a round table at which the progress that has been made with individual countries will be brought into the discussion and general agreement sought.

The opinion most generally expressed here is that if the conferences during the next few weeks should result in a peace treaty, it will be the result of a round table at which the progress that has been made with individual countries will be brought into the discussion and general agreement sought.

British Name Delegates. London, Jan. 10.—Premier Lloyd George; Andrew Bonar Law, chancellor of the exchequer; A. J. Balfour, secretary of state for foreign affairs; and George Nicoll Barnes, privy councillor, have been appointed plenipotentiaries to the peace congress by the British cabinet, according to the Express and Mail.

William Morris Hughes, premier of Australia; Sir Robert L. Borden, premier of Canada; and General Louis B. Franchet, premier of the Union of South Africa, will be colonial representatives who will have seats when the congress takes up business of interest to the dominions they represent. It is said.

France May Have 80 Delegates. Paris, Thursday, Jan. 9.—It is probable that there will be eighty delegates at the peace congress. The program of the peace congress is being prepared by the French government is approved by the supreme council. There will, in addition, be extra delegates from most of the nations represented.

It is probable that Lord Harding, former viceroy of India; Sir Louis Mallet, British ambassador to Turkey; Sir Henry W. Howard, British minister to Switzerland, will appear for Great Britain as extra delegates. Bernard Baruch, Vance McCormick and other specialists will be called upon by the United States peace commission.

Smaller powers which declared war on the central empires, will have three delegates. These nations are Greece, Serbia, Portugal, Rumania, Brazil and China. Poland and Czechoslovakia will have two apiece. Countries which simply broke relations with other central powers, will have one delegate.

SEN. BURKE OFFERS BILL TO INCREASE COMPENSATION RATE

MEASURE WOULD PROVIDE FOR COMPUTATION ON ACTUAL WAGES RECEIVED.

FAR-REACHING PLAN

Present Law Allows Workmen $5 Per Cent of Pay, Limited to $750 Per Year Maximum.

(By Fred L. Holmes.) Madison, Wis., Jan. 10.—A measure of far-reaching effect to increase the compensation of workmen of the state has been introduced in the state senate by Senator Timothy Burke of Green Bay. The measure will probably have the support of one, if not more members of the Wisconsin industrial commission. The bill seeks to have the compensation computed on the actual wage of the injured employee. This is one of the most far-reaching measures offered since the original compensation law was enacted in 1911.

The compensation act, as it now stands, provides that an injured workman shall receive compensation while disabled at the rate of sixty-five per cent of his wages, but that for purposes of computing compensation these wages shall not be more than $750 per year, and $2.50 per day. The Burke bill proposes to remove this maximum limitation upon the wages for purposes of computing compensation. It would give workmen sixty-five per cent of their actual wages as compensation. This will very materially increase the total compensation benefits under the Wisconsin law.

Increased Wages Affected. During the first six months of 1918, 53.1 per cent of all injured workmen earned wages in excess of the maximum of $750 per year. All of these workmen were paid compensation on the basis of $2.50 per day, although many of them earned four and five dollars per day.

The maximum wage limitation now in the law since 1911. At that time very few workmen were earning in excess of $50 per year. From 1911 to the first half of 1918 only 15.1 per cent of all injured workmen actually earned in excess of $2.50 per day, while during the first half of this year 53.1 per cent of the injured workmen of the state, including all women and children who sustained industrial accidents, actually earned wages in excess of those recognized by the compensation law.

Maximum Increased in 1917. The 1917 legislature slightly increased the maximum weekly compensation from $12.50 to $15.00. This change amounts to an increase in the maximum compensation which a workman may receive from $9.37 to $11.25 per week.

Early this morning the industrial commission gave the legislature an estimate based on the experience of the year 1918-19 that such an amendment would increase the cost of compensation to employers by 3.7 per cent.

The proposal of the Burke bill to add the healing period to the schedule allowance in the case of dismemberments was also brought before the committee. At that time the industrial commission gave the legislature an estimate based on the experience of the year 1918-19 that such an amendment would increase the cost of compensation to employers by 3.7 per cent.

TWO WOMEN SEATED IN CONVENTION

Chicago, Jan. 10.—Two women occupied seats in the Republican national committee at its meeting here today for the first time in the history of the organization. They were admitted to the inner councils of the party on proxies and enjoyed all rights of regular members. The action marked the beginning of a new epoch in the affairs of the party and is taken to mean that in the future women will be urged to take an active part in every branch of national republican politics.

TRIBUNAL TO TRY FORMER KAISER BEING CONSIDERED

SPECIAL COMMITTEE CHARGED WITH CHECKING UP VIOLATIONS URGED PROCEEDINGS.

100,000 CASES HEARD

Sub-Committees Have Large Masses of Evidence to Go Over Before Final Reports are Made.

(By Associated Press.) London, Jan. 9.—Proceedings against the former German emperor are advised in a special report by a sub-committee of the commission charged with inquiring into violations of the laws of war appointed two months ago.

Plans for a tribunal which will try cases in which violations of the laws of war are alleged, have already been submitted.

One of the most difficult phases of the work has been the inquiry into ill-treatment of prisoners, the employment of the Red Cross flag, bombardments of hospitals and the execution of Miss Edith Cavell and Capt. Fryatt. The sub-committee has examined about 100,000 cases of ill treatment of prisoners and has about 150,000 more to investigate.

The sub-committee has submitted an interim report on the employment of prisoners behind the firing lines and in German mines and quarries.

Offenses at sea are being dealt with by a third committee which a fourth committee has been dealing with offenses in the air.

All the sub-committees still have large masses of evidence to examine before final reports are issued. The degree of responsibility attaching to individuals, although final conclusions may not therefore be reached, is a majority of cases of the committee is satisfied that it is not to be assumed that practical steps have not been taken to secure and arrest offenders.

Chairman Will H. Hays read a report in which he reviewed his activities during his first year in office and analyzed the republican victory at the congressional elections last November. The committee adopted resolutions on the death of Col. Theodore Roosevelt. In speaking on the resolutions, Chairman Hays said: "The ideal of which Roosevelt spent his life shall not fail. The banner that Theodore Roosevelt carried shall not fail for a moment. The republican party will continue to carry on the banner of Roosevelt to apply to new and changing conditions the wisdom of experience and the efficiency of honest zealous service. The lesson of Roosevelt's patriotism shall not be forgotten."

At 1 p. m. the members of the committee entertained at luncheon six members of the woman's republican national executive committee. They were Mrs. Medill McCormick of Illinois, chairman; Miss Mary Garrett Hay of New York; Mrs. Margaret Corlies of Kansas; Mrs. Josephine Corlies of Kansas; Mrs. William Raymond of Illinois and Mrs. Florence Collins of California.

In the afternoon the committee listened to addresses by Gov. Beckman of Wisconsin, Mrs. Medill McCormick of Illinois, chairman, and Mrs. Margaret Hay of New York.

Discourage Presidential Booms. Chairman Hays and other members of the committee discouraged attempts to create booms for presidential candidates. They took the position that the party leaders should wait a year before seriously discussing the qualifications of the many men named by their friends for the presidential nomination.

Apparently every eastern and middle west state has at least one favorite son candidate for the honor. In the matter of campaign issues, the committee members in informal discussions were outspoken in their criticism of the alleged extravagance of the national democratic administration and a majority seemed to favor the nomination by the party at the proper time a strong declaration against socialistic policies including the federal ownership or operation of the railroads and other public utilities.

Flames Threaten FRANKSVILLE VILLAGE. Racine, Jan. 10.—Long distance telephone advices from Franksville, a village northwest of here, stated that fire which has been raging since this morning, has destroyed five buildings, including the general store and that with a high wind blowing, further destruction of property is imminent.

At one o'clock this morning a thunderstorm and heavy rain cleared the air and the fire was brought under control. The fire was caused by a gas leak in the kitchen of the general store.

(By Associated Press.) Berlin, Jan. 9.—It is estimated that more than 200 persons have been killed in the fighting in Berlin since Monday. The Charite and other outlying hospitals cared for 300 wounded yesterday. Twelve dead were carried into the chancellors palace in Wilhelmstrasse during Wednesday.

Spartacans Hold News Plants. Berlin, Jan. 9.—Determined attacks by the government forces on the plants of the Tagesspiegel and the Vossische Zeitung which were in the hands of the Spartacans, have been going on with short intervals of inaction since noon today.

The machine gun firing in the newspaper courts is almost continuous and the adjacent streets are not open to traffic, either because they have been closed by military or because the bullets from the machine guns and rifles occasionally can be heard singing over the Friedrichstrasse and the Leipzigerstrasse and other parts of the section involved.

CLAIMS BRITISH HAVE STARTED PROPAGANDA AGAINST WILSON PLAN

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)
Washington, Jan. 10.—Edmond von Mach, former Harvard instructor testifying today before the senate committee investigating German propaganda, asserted that the British government had started a propaganda campaign against President Wilson's advocacy of a league of nations.
"A definite campaign is on foot to keep the president from keeping the word he had pledged that nations must be impossible and that nations must be just," he said. "It is not the English people, but the English government that is behind the movement."
Von Mach declared also that British secret service agents were "ready to strangle him" for his attitude against British propaganda.

John McCormack realizing that the public like to hear "just so much" of the classics, he includes a group of classic songs in all his programs. Thus will he demonstrate that he can throw off fireworks with the best of the foreigners. But while he can compete with their fireworks, they cannot compete with the arm, rosy glow of the domestic heart invoked by his songs, round which he causes memories to cluster, with sunshine of spring recollection and the airy fugitive half-in-different boy loves; fancies and aspirations in fact which yield the imprudent years of youth. John McCormack will be heard at the Auditorium in Milwaukee, January 11th.

HENRY C. BAKER NEXT POLICE CHIEF, RUMOR; CARLE MAKES DENIAL

PRESIDENT OF FIRE AND POLICE COMMISSION DECLARES NO CHOICE HAS BEEN MADE.

FORMERLY AT RACINE

Before Going To That City, Candidate Served Several Years As Head Of Madison Department.

Is Janesville to have a new chief of police? This question has been asked numerous times in the past few days by citizens who are interested in the police department.
Henry C. Baker, formerly Chief of Police of Madison and later of Racine, is said to be under consideration. The rumor has become persistent and many are claiming that Mr. Baker has already arrived in the city and is ready to take the office on January 15.

Wilbur F. Carle, president of the fire and police commission stated this morning that he knew absolutely nothing of the matter and stoutly denied Mr. Baker had been engaged. He was then asked if his commission had talked to him about securing Mr. Baker and he replied "No."

"Would you as president of the fire and police commission know if any change was contemplated at this time?" was asked Mr. Carle.
"I certainly would know if a new chief had been engaged," was the answer Mr. Carle gave.

P. Cullen, secretary of the commission is at Green Bay.
Chief Champion when asked regarding the rumor stated that several times within the past few days he had been asked by business men if the new chief had arrived.
No word has been given to Chief Champion that his successor has been secured and no hint has been given him when his registration will be accepted.

Chief Champion at a meeting of the fire and police commission in October told the members that he was not satisfied with the salary and that he would like to be relieved of the position and go back on the force as a patrolman.
He was asked at that time to remain until such a time as a new chief could be secured. He agreed to do this and has been expecting the arrival of a new chief for the past several weeks.

Chief Champion in discussing the situation this morning stated that he would prefer to go back as a patrolman rather than continue as chief at his present salary.
The chief receives $308 per month at the present time and the night captain receives $105 a month.
Chief Champion has held the position for the past several years and to become chief again would mean that he has been in office longer than any other chief since the late John W. Hogan. He was formerly connected with the fire department and resigned to become a member of the police department.

Soon after becoming a member of the department there were several changes and Chief Champion was appointed head of the force.

The salaries offered to teachers in the state of Illinois appear attractive and this can be given as the reason for the large number of applications.

CHIEF CHAMPION TO STOP POKER GAMES

Police Head Claims That He Knows of No Cigar Stores Allowing Such Sessions in Back Rooms.

Are poker games being played in the rear rooms of the local cigar stores? According to a story in a Beloit Newspaper of Thursday, Chief Champion has made an investigation and failed to find any poker games in the rear rooms of the local cigar stores. The chief has issued several warnings to the effect that any cigar dealer running a poker game would be arrested.

Freeman Geeser arrested for stealing an overcoat alleged he lost during a poker game in a local cigar store. The rumor is that Geeser was in the rear room of a local cigar store and was playing poker. His story has not yet been verified.
The following article regarding the matter appeared in the Beloit paper:
Freeman Geeser, Beloit man arrested by local officers for the Janesville police department on a charge of larceny, after it is claimed he stole his own overcoat which he had lost in a poker game, was scheduled to appear for trial in the Municipal court in the Bower City today.

Prospects for the dismissal of the charges, however, were bright. Reports from Janesville indicate that the complaining witness had disappeared. Geeser was arrested in a local factory on December 28. The poker game in which he is said to have lost his overcoat took place in the back room of a Janesville cigar store on the night before. Geeser admitted to police officers that he had been stripped of all his money in the game and that he then offered his overcoat. This he lost also, but claiming unfairly play he snatched his overcoat and ran. The man who won the coat followed, but was unable to catch him and as a result he swore out a warrant, charging the Beloit man with larceny of the coat.
Geeser has not been dismissed and his case will be called for trial as soon as Judge McField returns.

In discussing the case this morning, Chief Champion stated that as far as he knew there were no poker games in Janesville. He stated, however, that on one occasion he warned a room owner who it was alleged was allowing poker to be played in his establishment.

PLANS ENROLLMENT FOR BOYS' WORKING RESERVE, JANUARY 20

Plans for the enrollment of boys between the ages of 16 and 21 in the U. S. Boys' Working Reserve are being outlined by Principal Bassford, county director, and Alvin West, city director. The enrollment campaign will be staged in this county during the week of January 20, and a great effort is going to be made to sign up over a hundred boys from the local high school alone.

This organization rendered a great service to farmers during the summer vacation last year and prospects for a bigger enrollment this year appear bright. Last year 727 local high school boys signed up for the work and aided greatly in crop production. Many of them were employed to leave school late in the spring to commence work on the farms and were given credit in their school work, according to their grade of work on the farms.
In speaking of this work this morning, Mr. West said: "It is not expected that boys will be generally dismissed from school before the end of the school year as was done last year. In cases of great need, which will occur most often in cases of boys who are needed on their own fathers' farms. All boys can be ready to go upon their vacation in the summer. The organization will provide plenty of time in which to fulfill requirements for receiving the bronze badge of achievement which was awarded to over seventy boys from the local school last year."

Mr. West is expecting a consignment of farm craft lessons which will be used in the high school for the boys who sign up for the 1919 season.

St. Sorlin, Nov. 25, 1918.
My Dear Benefactor: Your gift has reached me, and I do not know how to thank you for your kindness. If I were near you I should be embracing you just as I would do to my poor father. I am not very old yet, but my father was very old and very poor. They are only five and six years old. My good mother works herself sick for us. If you have little children tell them that I love them, since you are a kind man like me. I do not know how to thank you. I only know how to tell you that you are very kind that I send you for my little brothers and myself our dearest wishes.

Voice of the People

To the Editor:

In the issue of your paper of Dec. 30, 1918 you printed an editorial with the intention to arouse public sentiment against the preaching of German sermons in the churches of Rock County, or as you say in a subsequent editorial, "to the end that the English language be made the one prevailing tongue." In advocating the abolition of the German church in Rock County, it is so full of misrepresentations that the people of Rock County who have read it can not but be misled, if they do not already know the facts in the case. It is not so much a matter of the baseless insinuations hinting at "all this propaganda," "doctrines of the enemy," "scrap of paper," etc., that I wish to reply to this editorial.

First, the reader who knows anything about the facts in the case at all will feel the injustice of these charges. But I rather wish to inform the public of the possible effect of the editorial in the minds of the German, English, Norwegian, or whatever language in regard to two questions, viz: the question of loyalty and the language question.

Loyalty. Where does the Lutheran church stand in the loyalty question? The Lutheran church exists solely for one purpose, to wit: to make people wise unto salvation through the Gospel of Christ. It is not a political party, nor a body politic, neither does it meddle in political and state affairs. Its object is not the temporal felicity, but the spiritual and eternal welfare of mankind, and it is based on the Bible, the inspired word of God. The whole bible is the source and norm of doctrine and rule of life in the Lutheran church.

Now, what do the Lutherans believe and teach in regard to civil government? They believe and teach what the bible says thereof in the following places: Matthew 22, 23; Romans 13, 14; 1 Peter 2, 13 and 14. It would make this article too long to quote these texts in full. The reader will find them in his bible. These texts are used by the Lutheran church throughout the country, and also in Janesville and Rock County, all the years of its existence, and especially during these years of the war.

The Lutheran church teaches loyalty and patriotism to all members of its church, both old and young, in the church and in the school. Accordingly, Lutherans have been foremost in the church and in the school, must be subject unto the higher powers in all things political, regarding them as ordained by God, that they must obey the law, pay taxes, and do their duty in every way possible towards justice and efficiency. It teaches that if the government requires soldiers, Lutherans give up their boys to the army and navy, if the government requires money in the form of liberty bonds, war saving stamps, contributions to Red Cross, etc., that Lutherans buy bonds, and stamps, and give their contributions.

Furthermore, the Lutheran church teaches that Christians "must needs be subject, not only for wrath, but also for conscience sake," that is, they must be subject to the law, not only because of the fear of punishment, but because their conscience prompts them willingly to obey in conformity with the will of God.

And the Lutheran church also practices these teachings. It has year after year, long before and also during the war, prayed for the welfare of our country and government. At the outbreak of the war it willingly obeyed the law of the country and gave its boys and money towards the winning of the war. And the Lutheran church in Janesville and Rock County has been no exception to this rule. If some congregations in the country have elected their own committees to undertake the sale of liberty bonds in their own midst, they have done nothing disloyal, for they did only what they were requested to do by direct command from the liberty loan headquarters at Washington, urging them to report their sales to these very headquarters. And if there have been a few Lutherans who have refused to do their full share, that does not stamp the Lutheran church as being disloyal. On the contrary, as everybody knows, exceptions verify the rule. And why seek out the few? There are others.

The remarks in both editorials concerning the investigation at Washington as to the loyalty of Lutheran pastors is garbled and, therefore, misleading and worse than useless.

And to refer to my own congregation: For 53 years St. Paul's Lutheran church has been active in this city in the interests of the gospel. It has quietly performed its work as a Christian congregation, exhorting its members to lead a Godly life. And when the war broke out, its pastor, its teachers and its members were joined in the duties of all loyal citizens. They bought bonds and war saving stamps, did Red Cross work, and contributed their fair share to the war chest. St. Paul's Lutheran church was the first in line to receive the Red Cross banner. The same school is the only one in town, if I do not mistake, that owns a liberty bond. 47 boys of the church are in the army and navy, and several have been severely wounded. The Gazette ever printed their pictures and gave space to their letters. They were not ashamed of their German congregation, nor of their pastor, for they came to see and greet both most heartily, although they had been wounded by the German enemy. I mention this not in a spirit of boastfulness, but merely to show that Lutherans are not only loyal, but also practice true loyalty to their government.

Language. Where does the Lutheran church stand in the language question? As the Lutheran church has for its sole object the spreading of the gospel, it must preach that gospel in whatever language it can be understood. If it is to be preached to Germans, or French, or Spanish, or Norwegian, or English, or Italian, or these people are capable only of their native tongue; then the gospel must be preached in their language; otherwise they will not understand. Common sense will tell us that. Or how could they be admonished and taught to be loyal in a language they do not understand?

On the other hand, the Lutheran church cheerfully acknowledges the fact that the language of our country is the English language and that all its citizens ought to know and speak that language. However, this cannot be expected of the older immigrants who came here not only from Germany, but other countries, particularly from Norway, Sweden, Holland, Denmark, etc. For this reason the Lutheran church, and churches of other denominations as well, must still preach also in German for the sake of the older people who would otherwise be deprived of the benefits of the gospel. And here again I ask, why single out the Lutheran church? Are there not many churches in this country of other denominations preaching in German and other foreign languages? Let me assert once more: The Lutheran church has to do only with the gospel. The Lutheran church of America is not the Kaiser's church, it has nothing to do with Germany; it does not teach the doctrine of German "propaganda"; it receives no money from Germany to that effect; it has nothing to do with anything outside the teachings of the Bible.

The Lutheran church has been aware of the necessity of preaching English even in German churches long before the war. St. Paul's church in this town has been preaching English since several years ago. And the other Lutheran churches of Rock County also have introduced English since several years ago. The Lutheran church is open to the fact that the English language be made the prevailing tongue in this country. And the Lutheran church will be fully able to handle the language question in the best and the most advantageous manner to the best advantage of her people, both as members of the church and as citizens of our country. Let there be no misunderstanding about that. The Lutheran church is solving this question in an actual and therefore an efficient way. It would then have reason to be proud of its own efforts.

LUMBER COMPANY STOCKHOLDER ASKS FOR ACCOUNTING

Summons and other papers have been filed in Circuit court in a suit brought by J. L. Cullen against the Straits Lumber company asking for an accounting by the officers. Examination of the officers has been set for next Friday.

The company has holdings in British Columbia. At a recent meeting of the stockholders held in this city it was proposed to sell the holdings of the company of land in British Columbia which they would not receive back all the money they had invested. It is also desired to ascertain the manner in which the stock was allotted. The local officials are Joseph S. Fifield and George King and H. S. Gilky, formerly of Janesville, but now of Minneapolis.

About 50 local men hold stock in the corporation which is a Wisconsin concern. It has a capital of over $1,000,000 and was organized in Janesville in February 1918. Several million of the stock is owned in British Columbia.

A REAL NECESSITY.

In this city planning we must not lose sight of the necessity of a woman's building dedicated for their sole occupation and benefit. A recreation center for the women employed in the city, a place where the woman stranger within our gates can find friends and companions, can find recreation hours, in fact a woman's club.

For several years past there has been much discussion pro and con on the subject and many have contended that to be a success it must be a Y.
W. C. A., based on similar lines to the Y. M. C. A., which occupies such a prominent place in our community life for the young men. In fact this discussion has been ultimately ended in nothing definite being accomplished and the matter is still in abeyance.

Once more it is being discussed.
The suggestion that the sum of $1,200, which was originally subscribed for beds in a hospital in France, and later returned to the donors, because the structure was never built, as a nucleus of a new fund to be used for the purpose has been made, and meets with popular favor by the original subscribers. However, the old question of whether it shall be a Y. W. C. A., or merely a "Woman's club," complicates affairs.

For some years many tireless and unselfish women have conducted what is known as the Janesville Center, in the Myers theatre block, where the employed girls have found a resting place at noon, a recreation place in the evenings and tired mothers and visitors have been able to refresh themselves on journeys to the city. It has filled an important want in the city, but now we must prepare for an increased population and an increased need for a woman's building not hitherto imperative.

To avoid all misunderstandings why not call it the Janesville Center and establish it on broad and liberal lines, not possible under the Y. W. C. A.
Make it a non-sectarian organization,
with directors chosen from all the religious and women's organizations of the city. This would eliminate any question of the control of the building to a few sectarian beliefs and place it on such a broad basis that none could object.

Such a building should be so constructed that there would be a gymnasium, swimming pool, recreation rooms, sitting rooms, dining rooms, where meals could be secured at a nominal cost and a dormitory under the management of a tactful matron.
Of course if you wished to go a bit further there might be rooms for meetings of the various women's clubs of the city and this would be a source of revenue and help maintain the building.

In fact the possibilities are varied and the need essential. Just now the time is ripe for the creation of such an organization and there are no doubt many of the city planning are doubtless aware of the necessity for just such a structure at this time and would be glad to aid the woman who have done so much already in their unselfish work at the Janesville Center to bring about the successful end of the years of planning with this object in view.

The suggestion that it be non-sectarian would make possible the accounting of donations and gifts that might be offered by persons who would not be included in the list of patrons or managers of a Y. W. C. A. organization. It is worth considering at this time and thinking over carefully.

COLONEL JOHN HICKS.

During the life of Colonel John Hicks, owner and publisher of the Oshkosh Northwestern, he gave to the city of Oshkosh many wonderful works of art which grace its public parks and delight the eye of the viewer of the beautiful monuments, statues of distinguished Americans, busts for the schools and library, and upon his death he left a fund to maintain these works of art and to purchase others as they were needed.

As a memorial to his memory, the Oshkosh Northwestern on January 1st issued a handsome booklet which tells the story of the public work of this man and art works of the city of Oshkosh which clearly demonstrate Oshkosh's claim of being one of the greatest art centers in the United States for a city of its size.
The booklet is a handsome souvenir of Oshkosh and takes the place of the New Year's Annual, which for many years it has been the custom to issue for the city of Oshkosh.

By his gifts to the city of his choice, Col. Hicks has left memorials that will ever keep his memory green.
Would that other communities might have as liberal-spirited citizens and that Janesville might be thus benefited by similar donation and gifts.

A SOVEREIGN STATE.

It is interesting to note that Belgium, our dear devastated Belgium, the country that stood the way of the German aggression in 1914, and with its army held back the great hordes of ruthless Huns seeking to invade France and capture Paris, is now a sovereign state. The majority of the readers of this war thought that Belgium always was a sovereign state, but history tells us different.

Cut off from what is now Holland in 1830 it was supposed to be under the protection of four great powers.
How futile this belief was has been evidenced, and now the first act of the King of Belgium on re-entering Brussels, has been to call his parliament together and proclaim the entire independence of his country.
Thus Belgium becomes a sovereign
state.

her gladly to the family of sovereign states, and the great Geneva paper,
La Suisse, remarks:
"After August 4, 1914, Belgium ceased to be neutral, and although the Belgian government has kept up the real fiction of its permanent neutrality, it was clear that it would be renounced at the first favorable moment and that Belgium would declare its wish to re-establish an unfettered state under new laws.

Like her neighbor, Holland, as well as Denmark, she wishes henceforth to exercise a voluntary neutrality, free from all formality or promise, and to be able to renounce it at will if it be to her advantage to do so.

"Consequently she rejects the permanent neutrality for which she did not ask, which was forced upon her at the beginning of her history by diplomats and prevented her from having a true foreign policy, and by its very character constituted more of a guaranty for the Powers—which were suspicious of one another—than for her.

"The result will be that at the peace conference—instead of having to accept a settlement propounded by the other Powers—Belgium will play her own part, the important role of an equal and sovereign state."

SOLDIERS' MAIL.

When the final day of reckoning comes someone is going to smart for the absolute neglect in the care of letters and packages sent to soldiers with the American expeditionary force. "The news" and the pulpit and public speakers have urged parents and friends to write to the soldier boys to cheer them up, and there has been a liberal response, but when the story is sifted down, only a few of this multitude of soldiers' mail has ever reached its destination.

One Edgerton mother has written twice a week to her son, wounded, and in a hospital, and yet on a recent card he sent home he states he has not heard from home in so long he hopes all is well. Think of that? A wounded hero denied his mail in this day and age when we are experimenting with aeroplanes to transport mail here at home more quickly. Someone is to blame, and who is it? A Janesville mother failed to hear from her son for months, yet she wrote regularly, and finally back came one letter marked, "Not with Company D." Until she actually heard from her boy she dreamed of him and thought of him as dead or a prisoner in some Jap camp. It was a hard enough struggle to give our boys up for foreign service, but why, why, did the government have to take the simple existent of eating some of them—but the experts must have their fling.

The Bolshevik slogan: "If any man dares haul down a flag of soap from the shelf, shoot him on the spot!"
To throw things into the machine.

And so I sing a life of crime
And resolutions, I don't make 'em.
It seems to me a waste of time
To make such darn things just to break 'em.

Chicago experts could not tell the difference between cold storage and fresh-laid eggs. Any man can an expert and have tried the simple existent of eating some of them—but
the experts must have their fling.

Things are moving along in their normal way again after all the excitement of the war. Nat Goodwin, has picked out No. 6, and Ndi is some shopper.

There will be no seals at the peace
table for Germans. They will have to stand up at the lunch counter.

TO Legislate on Aircraft

Martinetto.—Mergoth Sawyer, member of the lower house of the Michigan
legislature from Menominee, has introduced a bill to regulate air craft in Michigan. Mr. Sawyer feels that whiskey runners will now utilize the air route to bring liquor into Michigan and believes that hunters will use
them for hunting wild fowl and deer.
In addressing the house on the matter
he related that two Menominee flyers
had captured their machines and would come home via the air and intended to use their machines for hunting. He thinks that there will be many in use before another year and that Michigan ought to inaugurate legislation to control them this winter.

Gives Estate to Charity

Martinetto.—Mrs. Minnie Gardner, generally known as Min. Roop, member of Martinette's underworld, who died here Sunday of the flu, left an estate to charity. Five hundred in cash goes

LITTLE CHILDREN EVERYWHERE

Little children everywhere,
Eyes of brown and eyes of blue,
Following toilers here and there, Smiling when the tasks are through;
Little voices that are sweet,
Ringing in men's ears all day;
Little hands and little feet,
Little bits of laughter gay,
World-wide over rule us all,
Tis for them that kingdoms fall.

Why do factory chimneys smoke?
Why do soldiers fight and die?
Why do painted jesters joke?
Why are steeples towering high?
Why is everything we know
Love and hate and doubt and fear?
Courage, when danger's near?
Back of every dream there lies
Little children's laughing eyes.

Men are toiling everywhere
For the laughter of a child.
Every crowded thoroughfare
Would have stayed a desert wild
But for men who wished to see
Earth a kindly place to play
For the children at their knees:
So for them they smoothed the way.
Back of every hour of care
There's a little child somewhere.

Freedom's flag was first unfurled
So that children might enjoy Life is such a troubled world
Little girl and little boy,
Nothing shall ever do,
But a share in it you own;
Life is being lived for you,
Every forward step men take
Is for little children's sake.

ON THE SPUR

of the MOMENT

ROY K. MOULTON

RESOLUTIONS.
I never met profound success
In keeping New Year's resolutions.
The spirit's willing but I guess
The fault is in my constitution.
I start like Richard our dear lion,
Crusader of the thousand graces,
Who never smoked or got a tea on
Or monkeyed with the fiddle axes.

My resolutions always end
Before the death of Yuletide greenery,
Because there's always some kind friend
To throw things into the machine.

And so I sing a life of crime
And resolutions, I don't make 'em.
It seems to me a waste of time
To make such darn things just to
break 'em.

Chicago experts could not tell the difference between cold storage and
fresh-laid eggs. Any man can an expert and have tried the simple existent of eating some of them—but
the experts must have their fling.

Things are moving along in their
normal way again after all the excitement of the war. Nat Goodwin, has picked out No. 6, and Ndi is some
shopper.

There will be no seals at the peace
table for Germans. They will have to stand up at the lunch counter.

TO Legislate on Aircraft

Martinetto.—Mergoth Sawyer, mem-
ber of the lower house of the Michigan
legislature from Menominee, has introduced a bill to regulate air craft in Michigan. Mr. Sawyer feels that whiskey runners will now utilize the
air route to bring liquor into Michigan and believes that hunters will use
them for hunting wild fowl and deer.
In addressing the house on the matter
he related that two Menominee flyers
had captured their machines and
would come home via the air and intended to use their machines for hunting. He thinks that there will be many in use before another year and
that Michigan ought to inaugurate
legislation to control them this winter.

WHOS WHO

in the Day's News

DR. TOWNER R. LEIGH

Kentucky's chief dollar-a-year man is Dr. Towner Randolph Leigh of Georgetown College, Kentucky.
He has gained wide fame as an inventor of war materials. He is a Chicago University doctor of philosophy, a fellow of the Royal Geographical society of London, and holds other honors. He has invented, for the government, a
which he accepted them, three days ago that his activity became known in his own
state.

He is an author of wide repute in the scientific fields, and during the past few years has written many pamphlets on patriotic topics. The National Civic Federation has issued an official edition of Dr. Leigh's articles on chemistry, industrial progress, scientific invention, medical and denial discoveries, in which the author has endeavored to show that Germany employs camouflage to deceive the world as a means of insidious propaganda. Besides the smoke screens adopted by the government, a non-refillable bottle for commercial uses and several types of bombs have been produced by the doctor. He is now working on a commercial rubber problem. Dr. Leigh's ancestry dates in America to old Virginia colonial days, and his high position in the bears have filled are numerous. One of them was Gov. Peyton Randolph of Virginia, who presided over the first continental congress. His eldest brother, Carl Richard Henry Leigh, is with the American squadron under Admiral Sims in European waters.
Dr. Leigh is head of the department of chemistry of Georgetown College, Kentucky.

Bank President Dies.
Fond du Lac.—William Nant, 66,
president of the State banks Knowledge and Eden, and vice president of the Campbellsport State bank, died suddenly at Campbellsport on Tuesday while attending a bank directors' meeting. Mr. Nant was also interested in a number of other business concerns.
A wife and three sons survive.

Swedish Engineers' Success.

Swedish engineers have solved the problem of keeping the population of Sweden comfortable during their severe winters by utilizing the energy of the natural water powers of that country for the creation of electricity, which has become the chief source of heat. Hot water tanks in hotels and all public buildings are heated by this element.

APOLLO

We Are Not Going To Be Disappointed

The famous Winner Players headed by John D. Winninger, himself, are to be with us again. This renowned company will play an engagement of seven nights, and the usual matinees at the Apollo Theatre, on Monday, January 13th.

In spite of the many obstacles to be overcome, Mr. Winninger has engaged what is proving to be the best acting company that he has had in years, and that is saying a great deal.

War has taken so many actors from the stage and converted the energies of many actresses to other fields that the acquisition of a really good company has become one of a manager's many besetting problems; but Mr. Winninger, with his usual foresight and progressiveness, went to New York in the early part of the season and was able to take his pick of the available talent.

The public at large will be glad to learn that Mr. Adolph Winninger is the leading man of the Winner big show, manager Myers has certainly exceeded the limit in managerial sagacity, for it will no doubt prove a drawing card which will test the capacity of Myers Theatre, which all of the best of American and English attractions have appeared, both in the past and present time. # HIGH SCHOOL BOYS TRY-OUT FOR FIRST BASKETBALL TEAM

Aspirants for first team positions on the high school basketball team were given a snappy workout last evening by Coach Crabtree. The try-out was held in the gymnasium of the high school. The game was held in preparation for the actual scrimmage which will be held in the near future in preparation for the opening game with Madison on January 17.

Part of last night's practice was taken up in passing the ball and working the ball down the floor. Basketball shooting was also in order, and last night's practice may be taken as evidence of the team's skill in basketball throwing. Janesville is scheduled to win the majority of their games.

New faces are appearing nightly and interest in the sport is growing in the school. The five's first opponents will be at Madison January 17, when the Wisconsin High's will be played. The Madison team is up to the usual standard and a hard game is expected. This afternoon work on passing and basketball shooting is being held by Coach Crabtree. He is outlining an even harder schedule of practice for next week.

Chicago will meet Purdue on the former's floor on Saturday night in the first conference game.

Sport Snap Shots

Magnates of the Three Eye league will be represented at the special meeting of the National Association of Professional Clubs Jan. 14. There is anxiety to secure early action for the coming year and the preliminary steps will be taken at the Chicago conference.

There are many inquiries from prospective members and a strong and compact circuit is in prospect. Bloomington, Peoria, Decatur, Springfield, Quincy, Hannibal, Alton, Danville and other cities are being sought. It may be found desirable to take in one or two cities of Indiana, former members of the Central league.

The opinion appears to be general that the Three Eyes should reorganize for the 1919 season, and it is expected that something definite will develop from the Chicago conference.

P. M. Troch, of Vancouver, and Homer Clark of Alton, Ill., are respectively, high average amateur and professional trap shooters for 1918, according to the official figures of the Interstate Association. Troch broke 6,455 targets out of 8,445, an average of 76.5, while Clark shattered 3,228 out of 3,310, giving him an average of 97.52 for the season.

Robert J. Howard Berry, the clever all-around athlete of the University of Pennsylvania plans to return to the course in January. He expects to graduate in June. His return will make him available for the team and basketball time. He will also compete in the Pentathlon championship, an annual feature of Penn's relay carnival in April, which he has won three times.

Augie Kleckhefer has started practicing the world's three-cushion championship match against Pierre Maupome of Milwaukee.

Close followers of the game believe that if Augie can defeat Maupome he will be able to win the emblem outright as they do not believe De Oro can stand the strain of a three nights' match.

Hans Robert, veteran diamond star, will continue at work in the Hog Island shipyard until February, when he will return to the West Point Academy to instruct the baseball squad.

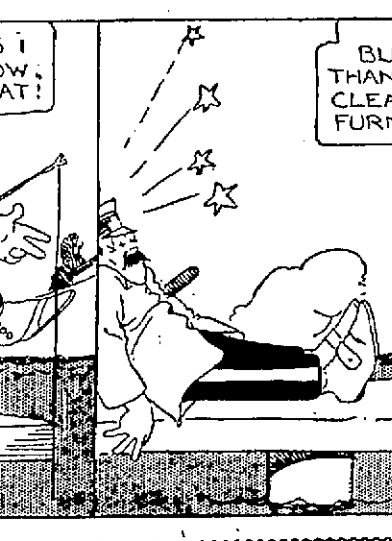

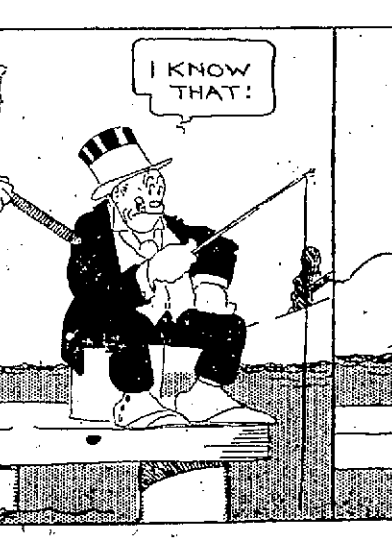

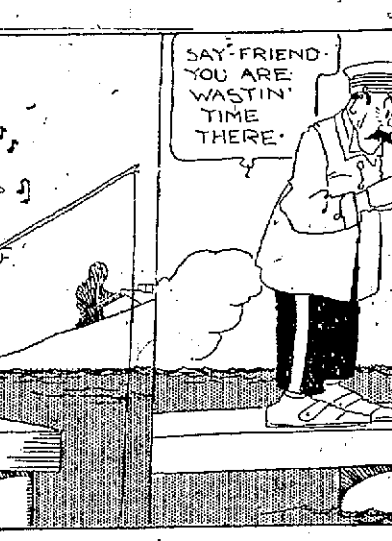

American Association pitchers were able to fan Nap Lajoie only seven times during the 1918 season, although the Frenchman went to bat 291 times in 140 league games. He drew twenty-seven passes.

The western intercollegiate conference A. A. basketball team will start Jan. 11. All of the Big Ten will compete in the tournament, which will conclude March 15 with the Indiana vs. Wisconsin game.

Great Lakes naval training station basketball team, in addition to contests with western conference fives, may visit the east and play among other games with Ann Arbor, Columbia, Rutgers and the Crescent of C. of Brooklyn.

Bill Kopt, former Nap, Athlete and Red, who played for the River shipyard team last summer and was later drafted into the army, expects to be a second lieutenant in six weeks. He is stationed at the artillery officers training school at Camp Taylor, Louisville.
